Re: Request for Early Termination from Supervised Release

On January 15, 2002, Richard Sanchez Corbilla was sentenced in the U.S. District Court of Guam by the Honorable John S. Unpingco for Importation of a Controlled Substance, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 952. He was sentenced to 57 months imprisonment followed by 60 months of supervised release with conditions that he comply with the mandatory and standard conditions of supervised release; abstain from the use of any and all alcohol beverages; perform 400 hours of community service; participate in a drug treatment program and testing; obtain and maintain gainful employment; and pay a $100 special assessment fee. Supervised release began on July 25, 2005 and is scheduled to terminate on July 24, 2010.

On August 3, 2007, Mr. Corbilla made a request to the U.S. Probation Office for early termination from supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(1). Mr. Corbilla's adjustment under supervision has been excellent. He paid the $100 special assessment fee on April 18, 2003, submitted to mandatory DNA collection on September 15, 2005, completed the drug treatment and testing program on December 1, 2005, and completed 400 hours of community service on January 5, 2008. He has maintained gainful employment, submitted all monthly supervision reports timely, and has tested negative at all random drug and alcohol tests.
